

WORTH A KING'S RANSOM.

Saved From The Maelstrom of Catarrh

How Peruna Saves Lives

Mrs. Col. E. J. Gresham, Treasurer Daughters of the Confederacy, and President Hernden Village Improvement Society, writes the following letter from Hernden, Fairfax county, Va.:

Hernden, Va.
The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

Gentlemen:—"I cannot speak too highly of the value of Peruna. I believe that I owe my life to its wonderful merits. I suffered with catarrh of the head and lungs in its worst form, until the doctors fairly gave me up, and I despaired of ever getting well again. I noticed your advertisement and the splendid testimonials given by people who had been cured by Peruna, and determined to try a bottle. I felt but little better, but used a second and a third bottle and kept on improving slowly. "It took six bottles to cure me, but they were worth a King's ransom to me. I talk Peruna to all my friends and am a true believer in its worth."

Mrs. Col. E. J. Gresham.

Thousands of women owe their lives to Peruna. Tens of thousands owe their health to Peruna. Hundreds of thousands are praising Peruna in every state in the Union. We have a great multitude of letters with written permission for use in public print, which can never be used for want of space.

Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a book written especially for women, instructively illustrated, entitled "Health and Beauty." Sent free to women.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACTIONS THIS WEEK.

Lyceum.
TUESDAY—The Magnificence.
WEDNESDAY—The Magnificence.
THURSDAY—The Magnificence.
FRIDAY and SATURDAY—"Electric Spark."
Matinee Saturday.

Academy of Music.
ALL WEEK—Bennett & Moulton Company in repertoire.

Gaiety.
LAST THREE DAYS—Wine, Women and Song.

"Faust" at the Lyceum.
Lewie Morrison's production of Goethe's wonderful play, "Faust," was last night presented at the Lyceum before an audience of very large dimensions who were thoroughly pleased with the production generally and the work in particular of Fred Donnor, who enacts Mr. Morrison's role of "Mephisto." Mr. Donnor is well known in this city, having been already seen here at the Lyceum, in the character of the earth, and he has distinguished himself in previous appearances in roles ranging all the way from leading characters in society dramas to the part of Falstaff in a Napoleon play.

AVOCA.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Langelle church will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Laird.

Miss Nellie Callahan, Matilda Clifford, Mary Malley and Margaret Dixon have been added to the corps of instructors at the International Correspondence schools.

David James, of the West Side, is critically ill of cancer.

Thomas McNally, of Cherry street, is critically ill of pneumonia.

On account of the majority of the notice posted at the Avoca colliery yesterday, the miners did not return to work. They will insist on a definite statement before returning.

Misses Mary Gordon, Katherine Waters, Mary Kane, Margaret Tighe, Messrs. John Flannery, P. J. Pryor, Michael Houston, Daniel Donovan, attended the Catholic Total Abstinence union convention at Wilkes-Barre on Sunday.

Many friends of Mrs. Thomas Brown, formerly resident of this town, were grieved to learn of her death, which occurred at Mercy hospital on Saturday morning. The funeral will take place this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Pittston.

The marriage of Miss Ann Burke, of this town, and James McDonnell, of Pittston, was announced in St. Mary's church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kollum have returned after a week's visit with friends in Susquehanna county.

Miss Teresa Burke, of Jermy, spent Sunday with friends in town.

HALLSTEAD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Hallstead, Oct. 29.—H. B. Ross has placed a new work wagon on the road to meet the demands of his growing business in the oil trade.

John H. Vanlanos was among the delegates from Hallstead to attend the Republican rally for Governor Roosevelt last Saturday. The gentleman's striking likeness to Mark Hanna was noticed by the people standing in the line to attend the rally.

Champion Jeffries Coming.

James J. Jeffries, the champion pugilist athlete of the world, will make his appearance here in the new American melodrama, "A Man from the West," written for him by the well known playwright, Charles M. Gross. Having demonstrated that he is without a peer in the world of pugilism, Champion Jeffries bids fair to lay claim within a short time to being the best actor who has ever stepped from the ring to the stage.

"The Electric Spark."

Stager Midgley, in the role of John Bogie Sager in "The Electric Spark," is making his first annual starting tour this season and is meeting with success. In fact, the success was assured before he forsook his profitable vaudeville engagement, where he has been such a shining light for several seasons, to enter upon a career of dramatic endeavor.

At the Gaiety.

Opening with matinee on Thursday afternoon, the Gaiety company will occupy the boards at the Gaiety theater for a period of three days. This organization upon its appearance in this city last year gave universal satisfaction and was endorsed by all who witnessed their performances.

DECKVILLE.

The miners' mass meeting on the Mott Haven base ball grounds here yesterday afternoon, attended by fully 1,000 miners from the several mines of the New York and Ontario Coal company. At 5 o'clock, in the absence of Mr. Diller, a representative from the official board, one of whom had promised the committee waiting, upon President Mitchell, would be present to address them, falling to appear, and the vast throng of workmen evinced a desire of unbusiness at the disappointment.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, Oct. 29.—Walter Cobb, of Scranton, the genial express messenger, spent Friday night here with his parents.

Arthur Reynolds and family have moved into the James Flynn property.

HAWLEY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Hawley, Oct. 29.—In anticipation of an early supply of water the borough council has purchased 1,500 feet of hose for fire purposes. They have also ordered two hose carriages, each of which will contain 750 feet of the hose mentioned above. The scheme which is being brought to pass is to house one at each end of the town. If this plan is carried out it will necessitate the formation of another fire company.

of securing the additional two and one-half per cent per car. All the other mines operated by the New York and Ontario company had previously to Sunday afternoon, Oct. 28, at the Abolition Room in the Court House in the city of Scranton, Pennsylvania, had agreed to resume work yesterday morning.

Messrs. F. D. Thomas, of Blakely, is constructing a hotel at Brown Hollow in Scott township, and H. L. Thompson is similarly engaged on the Blakeley poor farm, respectively.

Several boys from the Ridge were arrested and given a hearing before Magistrate Smith, of the West End, yesterday afternoon, on a charge of filthy, malicious mischief, preferred by Merchant Jacoby, at his home with them regarding the extra demand, had agreed to resume work yesterday morning.

TAYLOR.

The citizens of the First ward have organized a political club, known as the Independent Political club. The membership is being organized by President, Richard J. Davis; secretary, E. G. Evans; treasurer, William Bowen.

As a result of Sunday foot ball playing between the representative team and Avoca, James Fitzpatrick, of the senior team, lies at his home with a badly crushed chest and several fractured ribs. Dr. J. S. Porteus examined the young man and pronounced him to be in a very dangerous condition.

The proposed fair and festival of the Calvary Baptist church congregation, which was to have been held next month, has been postponed until January next. It was deemed advisable by the committee in charge to postpone it until then, owing to the recent strike, which greatly affected the arrangements for the same.
